Jack AND Janet

CURRICULUM

Reading for Meaning

Ex libris universitatis albertaensis

M.A.C.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF CURRICULUM
in charge of ELEMENTARY EDUCATION

FACULTY OF EDUCATION
UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA

Reading for Meaning

Jack AND Janet

Educ. Cur.
PE
1117 R282
v.5
bk. 1
1st. half

REVISED EDITION

PAUL McKEE
M. LUCILE HARRISON
ANNIE McCOWEN
ELIZABETH LEHR

HOUGHTON MIFFLIN
COMPANY • Boston
The Riverside Press
Cambridge

What you will find:

PLAY

Here Is the Milk 4
Who Is It? 19
What Can It Be? 32

HOME

One Mitten Is Gone 46
The Little Goat 67
Penny Plays Rabbit 79
Who Did It? 99

FUN

Tip and Her Tricks 114
Something for Jack 132
Away Went the Kite . . . 146
Two Kittens for One . . . 165

COPYRIGHT ©, 1957, BY HOUGHTON MIFFLIN COMPANY
COPYRIGHT, 1949, BY HOUGHTON MIFFLIN COMPANY
ALL RIGHTS RESERVED INCLUDING THE RIGHT TO REPRODUCE THIS BOOK OR PARTS THEREOF IN ANY FORM
PRINTED IN THE U. S. A.

UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA LIBRARY

PLAY

346125

Here Is the Milk

Find Janet

Janet! Janet!

Janet is not here.

Will you find Janet for me?

Janet will go for the milk.

I will find Janet for you.

Tip is here.

Tip will go with me.

Tip and I will find Janet.

Janet will get the milk for you.

This is for Janet.

You go and find Janet for me.

Janet will get the milk.

Come, Tip.

You may come with me.

You and I will find Janet.

You find Janet.

Janet will get the milk for me.

You and Tip may play.

Janet Is Not Here

No, Tip.

This is not for you.

This is for Janet.

I can not find Janet.

Janet is not here.

Milk for Mother

This is for Janet.

I can not find Janet.

The milk is for Mother.

I can get the milk for Mother.

You may come with me, Tip.

You and I can get the milk.

This is for Janet.

I can not find Janet.

I have come for the milk.

Mother is home.

The milk is for Mother.

May I have the milk?

Not for Tip

Tip! Tip!
Come here with the ball!
It is not for you.

You have a ball.
Go home and play with it.

Here is your ball.

It is not for Tip.

Tip can not have your ball.

You have a ball, Tip.

Go home and find your ball.

Find Your Ball, Tip

Go and find your ball, Tip.
You can find it.
Find it and play with it.

Mitten, come here!
You come home with me.

You come with me, Mitten.

I will play with you.

Tip will play with her ball.

Her ball is not here.

Tip will go home and find it.

Where is your ball, Tip?
Where is it?

Come, Mitten.
You come with me.
Tip can not find her ball.
I will find it for her.

Where Is the Milk?

Where is Janet?

We can not find her, Mother.

Janet is not here.

We have the milk.

Where is the milk?

Here comes Janet, Mother.

Here comes Janet with the milk.

This is yours, Penny.

Is the milk for Mother?

Here is the milk, Mother.

We have the milk for you.

Who Is It?

Is It Penny?

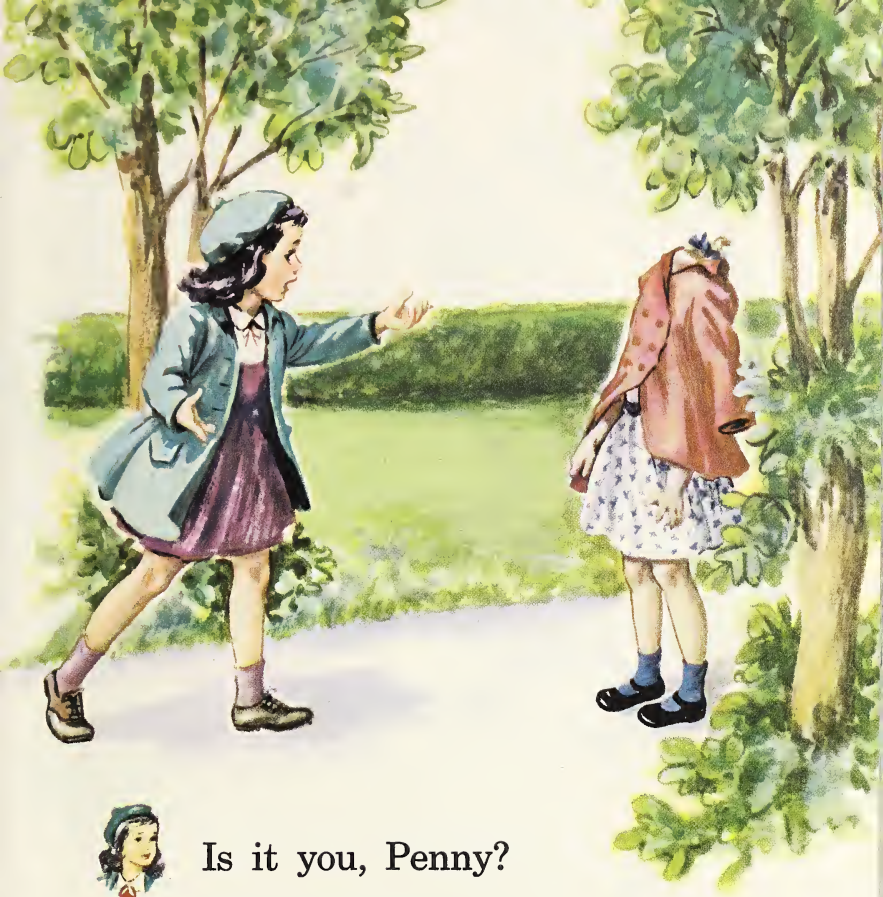
Janet! Janet!

Who is it?

Is it Penny?

Let me see.

Let me see who it is.



Is it you, Penny?

Let me look.

Come here.

Come here where I can see you.

Let me look and see who it is.

I see who it is.

I can see your head.

It is you, Penny.

Let me do it.

Let me do it, Penny.

Look, Penny.

I have no head.

Do I look funny?

You do look funny, Janet.

I can not see your head.

Let Jack see you.

Who Are You?

Look, Jack! Look!
Do you see who this is?

Who are you?
You look funny.
Where is your head?
Come here and let me see you.
Let me see who you are.

Now I see who you are.

I can see your head.

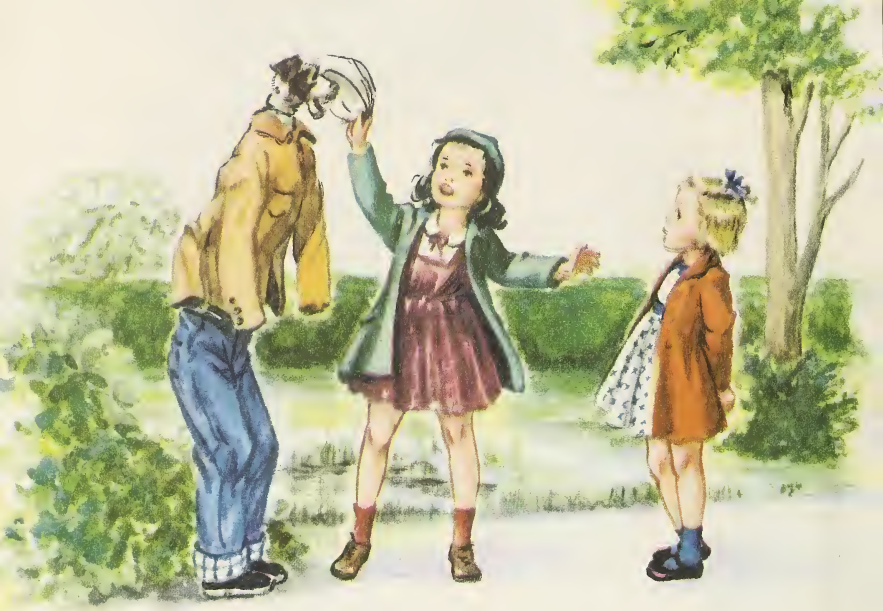
You look funny, Janet.

Let me do it.

Let me do it now.

Where is Tip?

Tip can do this with me.



Who Is This?

You have a funny head, Jack.
Go and let Mother see you.

Go and find Mother now.
Mother will not see who you are.
This will be funny.

Where can Mother be?

Who are you?

What a funny head you have!

You can not be Tip.

You can not be Jack.

Now, who can you be?

Mother can not see who it is.

Jack, your head is gone!
Now what will you do?

Look, Mother!
Jack looks funny with no head.

What! Your head is gone?
Where is your head, Jack?
What will you do?

Your head is not gone, Jack.

Jack has a head, Mother.

It is not gone.

I see it, Penny.

What a funny head Jack has now!

Find f in for and funny.

What will f go with?

Find h in has and head.

What will h go with?

Find g in get and gone.

What will g go with?

Find n in not and now.

What will n go with?

Find c in can and come.

What will c go with?

Find m in milk and may.

What will m go with?

Find l in let and look.

What will l go with?

What Can It Be?

What Is It?

Come here, Jack!

You come too, Janet!

What do you have, Mother?

Where did you get it?

Come and see what it is.

Where has Penny gone?

It is for her, too.

Penny, come here!

Come and see what Jack has.

It is for you, too.

What is it?

Where did you get it?

Show me what it is.

Come here and I will show you.

Who Did This?

Janet, who did this?

Mother did it, Penny.

Look! This shows where to go!
It shows what to do, too!

Look what we have to find.
We have to look in it.

Now Where Do We Go?

Look what is here!

See what is in it.

That may show where to go.

That may show what to do, too.

Look, Janet.

Look and see what we are to do.

This shows where to go now.

It shows what to do, too.

That is a bed.

Do we have to go to bed now?

No, Penny!

We have to look in that bed.

Look here, Penny and Jack!
Mitten is in the bed!
This did not show her in the bed!

Mitten, let me have a look.
Let me look in that bed.
See what is here!

That will show us where to go.
It will show us what to do, too.

What is that, Janet?

That is water, Penny.

We have to go to that water.

We have to find a box, too.

Here comes Mother.

Mother, will you go with us?

I will go with you, Jack.

Where Is the Box?

Look there, Penny!

There is the water!

I see it, Mother.

Will you let us play in the water?

Not now, Penny.

We have to find the box now.

Look, Jack!

Look, Penny!

There is a big box.

Good, Janet! Good!

That big box is for us.

Look how big the box is!

What is in it, Jack?

We will have to look and see.

How did the box get there, Mother?

See how big it is!

Did you do it?

No, Janet, I did not do it.

Did Daddy Put It Here?

Look, there is Daddy!

Good! Look, Daddy!

How did this big box get here?

I put it there.

I put it there for you.

May we see what is in it, Daddy?

Here, I will show you.

Where can I put this, Mother?

Put it here, Janet.

That looks good, Daddy.

It looks good to me too, Jack.

Home

One Mitten Is Gone

Where Is the Mitten?

Jack said, "Look, Janet!
One mitten is gone.
What did you do with it?
Where has it gone?"

Janet said, "What mitten, Jack?
Here is a mitten."

Mother said, "Look, Janet.
One of your mittens is gone.
One of your mittens is not here.
Where is it?"

Janet said, "I will look for it.
I will have to find it."

Mother said, "Is your mitten there?"

Janet said, "No, Mother.
My mitten is not in there.
I will have to find it.

"Where can my mitten be?
Where has one of my mittens gone?
Where will I look for it now?"

Tip Finds the Mitten

Penny said, "No, Tip.
That is not one of my mittens.
There are my mittens."

Jack said, "Let me see it, Tip.
Janet can not find her mitten.
One of hers is gone.

"It is her mitten, Penny.
Take it home, Tip.
Take it to Janet."

Mother said, "Look, Janet!
Here comes Tip with your mitten.

"Tip, you are a good dog.
Take the mitten to Janet.
Take it to her."

Janet said, "Give it to me, Tip.
That is my mitten.
Where did you find it?

"You are a good dog."

Janet said, "Tip is a good dog.
I will be good to her.

"Mother, what can we give to Tip?
Have we something for her?"

Mother said, "Here is something.
You may take it to her."

Jack said, "Here is Tip, Janet.
Did Tip give you your mitten?"

"Yes, it is in there," said Janet.

"Tip, you are a good dog.
Here is something good for you."

Tip Has a Ball

Jack said, "Look, Dot!
Tip has something of yours.
Tip has your ball."

"Yes, it is my ball," said Dot.

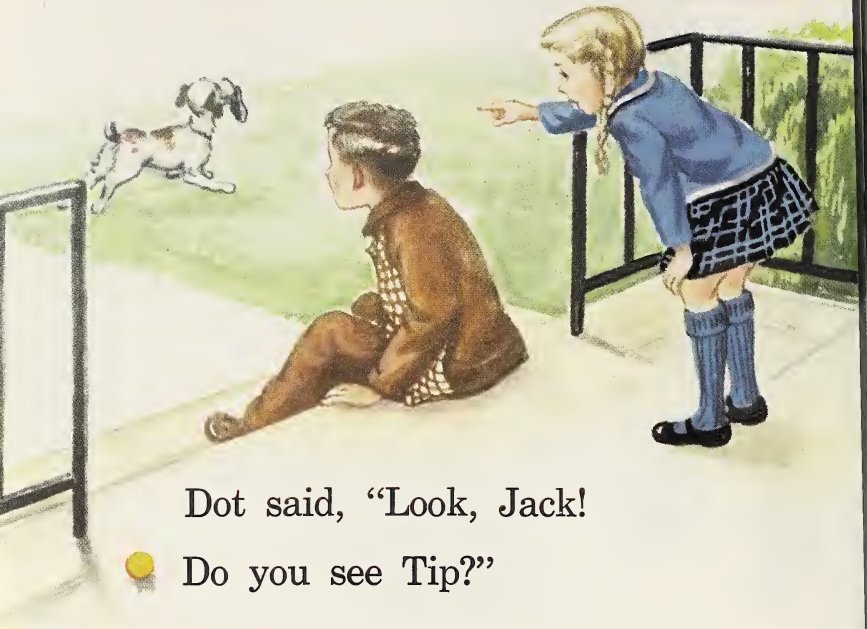
Jack said, "Where did Tip get it?
Did you give it to her?"

"No, I did not," said Dot.
"Tip is not a good dog."

Jack said, "It is not your ball, Tip.
Dot did not give it to you.
Give the ball to Dot.
Go and find something of yours."

"She will not do that," said Dot.

"Yes, she will," said Jack.
"She will be a good dog."



Dot said, "Look, Jack!
Do you see Tip?"

"Yes, I do," said Jack.
"She has something.
What is it?"

"Do you see what it is?" said Dot.
"That is something of mine, too."

"Yes, Dot, it is yours," said Jack.
"Tip! Put that down!"

Janet said, "What do you have now?
Where did you get it, Tip?
Put it down!
Put it down, Tip!

"That is not one of mine.
I have mine here."

Penny said, "It is not mine.
It is too big for me.
It is too little for Jack.

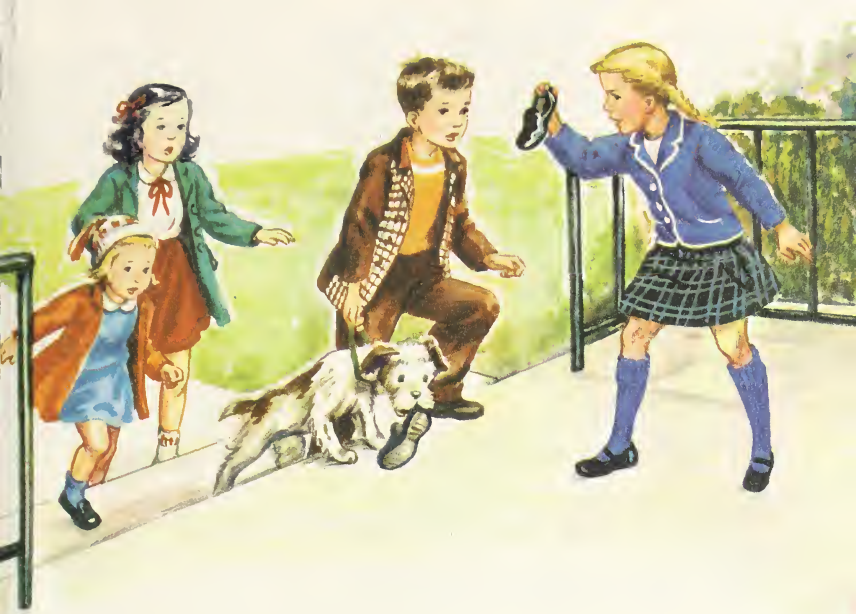
"Where did she get that?"

Dot said, "Look, Janet!
See what Tip has now.
Make her put it down."

"Is it yours?" said Janet.
"It is too little for Jack.
It is too big for Penny."

"Yes, it is mine," said Dot.
"Make Tip put it down."

"Tip, that is not yours," said Jack.
"You come with me."



"Here is one of mine," said Dot.
"That is one of mine, too.
It is not too little for me."

"Jack, Tip is bad," said Janet.
"Do something to make her be good."

"I will take her home," said Jack.
"She is a bad dog."

Now Tip Has a Kitten

Mother said, "See what Tip has now!
Where did she get that kitten?
Is that yours, Janet?"

"No, Mother," Janet said.
"It is not my kitten.
Tip did not get it here.
Dot has a little kitten.
That may be hers."

"Tip is a bad dog," said Mother.
"Make her take the kitten to Dot."

"Is this your kitten?" asked Jack.

"Yes, it is," said Dot.
"How did Tip get my little kitten?
I did not give it to her.
She is a bad dog."

"What can we do?" asked Janet.
"Tip is bad.
How can we make her be good, Jack?"

"I will show you," said Jack.

What Will Make Tip Be Good?

"What can we do?" asked Janet.

"Something funny," said Jack.
"Let me show you.
Give me the big can, Janet.
Put the little can in it."

"What good will that do?" asked Dot.

"You will see," said Jack.

"I will put this here," said Jack.
"Put the ball in the can, too, Janet.
Now, Dot, give me your kitten."

"What for?" asked Dot.
"What can you do with the kitten?"

"I will show you," said Jack.
"You will see what I can do."

"Dot, do you see now?" asked Jack.

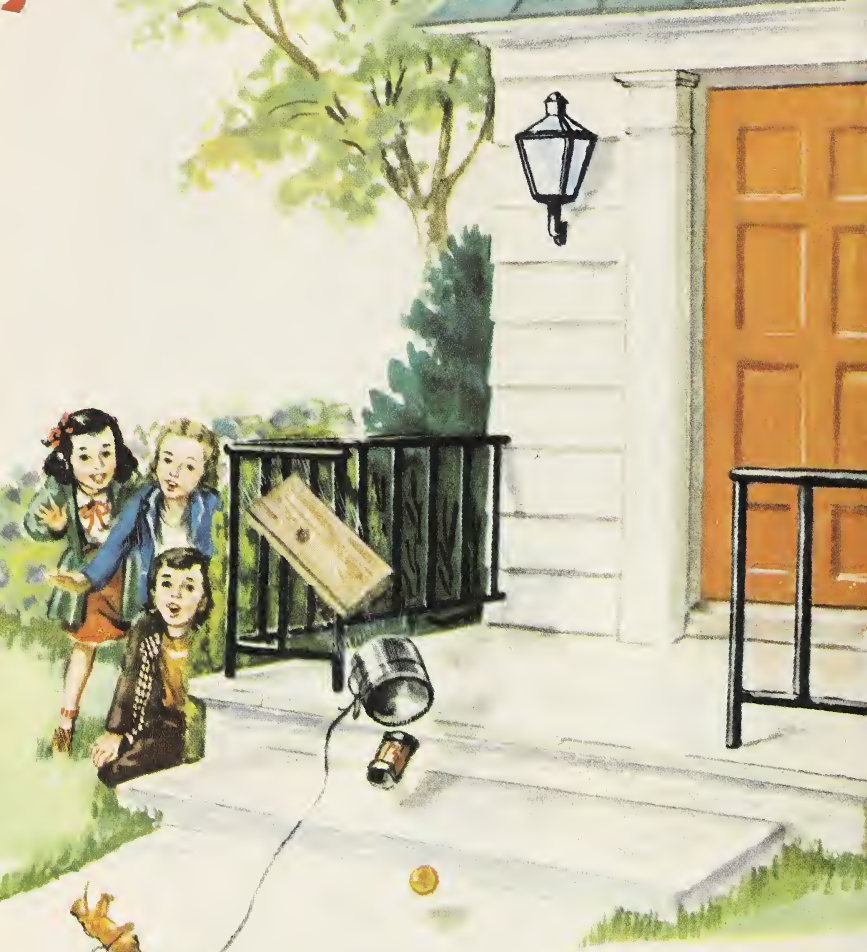
"Yes, now I see," said Dot.
"I see what the kitten is for."

"I see, too," said Janet.
"This will be funny.
This will make Tip be good."

"Now come with me," said Jack.
"We will not let Tip see us."

"There comes Tip!" said Janet.
"She will take the kitten."

"She has it now!" said Dot.
"Look, Janet! Look!"



"Now Tip will be good," said Jack.

The Little Goat

See What Is Here

"Mother! Mother!" said Jack.
"Come and see what I see."

"What do you see?" asked Mother.

"A little goat!" said Jack.

"A little goat!" said Mother.
"Where is he?"

"He is there," said Jack.

"Mother, may I have him?" asked Jack.
"May I have the little goat?"

"No, Jack," said Mother.
"He is not yours."

"What will we do with him?
Has he a home?" asked Jack.

"Yes, he has a home," said Mother.
"We will have to find it."

"Come with me," said Mother.
"I will get something for him to eat.
You may give it to him."

"What will you get?" asked Jack.
"What will he eat?"

"You will see," said Mother.
"I will get something for him.
Something a little goat will eat."

This Is for You

"See what you did!" said Jack.

"You are a bad goat.

That is not for you to eat.

"Here is something for you to eat.

Come and get this.

This is for a little goat."

"Where did you get the goat, Jack?
Is he your goat?" asked Janet.

"No, he is not mine," said Jack.
"Look what he did.
Come and help me, Janet."

"That is too bad," said Janet.
"What will you do with him?"

"He has a home," said Jack.
"We will have to find it."

Now Where Is He?

"Now where is he?" asked Jack.
"Where could that goat be?"

"I do not see him," said Janet.
"You will have to find him.
I will help you look for him."

"He could be in there," said Jack.
"I will look and see."

"Look here, Janet!" said Jack.
"See what that goat did!"

"He is a bad goat," said Janet.

"He could not help it," said Jack.
"See how funny he looks!"

"Could we call him Red?" asked Janet.

"Yes, we could," said Jack.
"We will call him Red."

"Jack! Jack! Come here!
See where Red is now," said Janet.

"That is not for him to eat.
What can we do with him?"

"Come here, Red," said Jack.
"You can not have that to eat.

"Call Mother, Janet.
She will help us."

"Did you call me, Janet?" asked Mother.

"This goat is bad," said Janet.
"Help us make him be good."

"How did he get red?" asked Mother.
"What did you do to the goat?"

"We did not do it," said Janet.
"He did it.
He will not be good.

"Look, Mother, there is a boy.
Who is that boy?"

"There you are," said the boy.

"How did you get red?"

"He did that," said Jack.

"We call him Red, now."

"He looks funny," said the boy.

"I will have to call him Red, too."

"Is he your goat?" asked Jack.

"Yes, he is mine," said the boy.
"I could not find him."

"Here he is," said Jack.
"Now you can take him home."

"Good," said the boy.

"Come, Red.
We will go home."

Penny Plays Rabbit

No Help for Mother

Mother asked, "Where are you, Penny?
Will you help me?
Will you get your dish for me?"

"I can not do that," said Penny.
"I am not Penny now.
I am a little rabbit.
A rabbit can not get a dish."

Penny said, "Look, Mother!
I am not Penny.
I am a rabbit."

Mother said, "That is too bad.
Penny could help me.
She could get her dish for me.

"I will not make her help me now.
I will let her be a rabbit.
Will that be fun for her?
She will see."

No Help for Jack

"I can not find my ball," said Jack.
"Help me find it, Penny."

Penny said, "I can not help you.
I am a rabbit now.

"I could not get a dish for Mother.
I can not find a ball for you.
A rabbit could not do that.
A rabbit can hop.
See me hop!
This is fun."

Jack said, "Did you hear that?
Did you hear what she said, Mother?
She said she was a rabbit.

"Penny, you are not a rabbit.
You are bad.
You could help me.
You will not do it.
Be a rabbit and hop, hop, hop.
That will not be fun.
You will see."

No Help for Janet

"Come here, Penny," said Janet.
"I want you to help me.
Come and help me make your bed.
Penny, do you hear me?"

"Janet! I am a rabbit," said Penny.
"I could not get a dish for Mother.
I could not find a ball for Jack.
I can not help you make my bed.
I want to hop, hop, hop.
This is fun."

Janet said, "Did you hear that?
Penny said she was a rabbit.

"Penny, you are not a rabbit.
I want you to help me.
Come and help me make your bed."

"Yes, I am a rabbit," said Penny.
"I can not come in there.
Mother will not have a rabbit there.
She will not have me in the house.
It is fun to be a rabbit."

Janet said, "Did you hear Penny?
Did you hear what she said?
She said she was a rabbit.
She wants to hop.
She will not come into the house.
She will not help me make her bed.
I want her to help me."

"Yes, I did hear her," said Mother.
"She said that she was a rabbit.
We will let her be a rabbit."

No Help for Daddy

"Come here, Penny," said Daddy.
"Take this milk to Mother.
I know she wants it now."

Penny said, "I am a rabbit.
I could not get a dish for Mother.
I could not find a ball for Jack.
I could not help Janet make my bed.
I can not take that milk to Mother.
I am a rabbit now.
I know what a rabbit can do."

"Did you hear that?" asked Daddy.
"Penny said she was a rabbit.
She said she could not help me.
She could not go into the house.

"I know what we will do.
Jack, you make a house out here.
Janet, you get a dish for her.
Mother knows what to put into it.
We will put it out here, too.
I will make a bed for the rabbit."

A House for a Rabbit

"Here is a house for her," said Jack.

"Here is her dish," said Janet.

"See what I have," said Mother.
"I will put this into the dish.
I know rabbits like to eat this."

"This will make a bed," said Daddy.
"A rabbit will like this for a bed.
She can sleep out here."

"Come here, Rabbit," said Jack.
"Here is a house for you.
How does it look to you?"

"I like it," said Penny.

"How does this look?" asked Janet.
"It is good for a rabbit to eat."

"There is your bed," said Daddy.
"You may sleep out here."

"How does this look, Rabbit?
Do you like it?" asked Mother.

"I like it," said Penny.
"I will have fun out here.
I will hop into my house now.
I will eat what is in the dish.
I will sleep in the bed."

"Have fun in your house," said Daddy.
"You have a good bed to sleep in."

"Janet, may I come in?" asked Penny.
"May I come into the house?"

"You are a rabbit," said Janet.
"You may not come into the house."

"I want my milk," said Penny.
"Does Mother have my milk for me?"

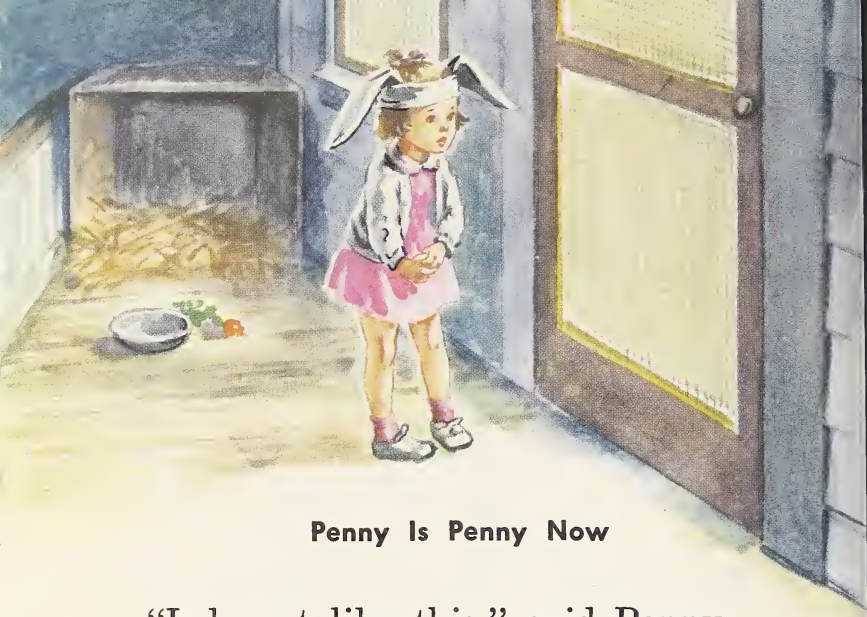
Jack said, "You are a rabbit now.
She does not have milk for rabbits."

"Mother, may I come in?" asked Penny.
"May I come in and help you?"

"How could you help?" said Mother.
"You are a rabbit.
How could a rabbit help me do this?"

"May I go to bed?" asked Penny.
"May I come in and go to bed?"

"Sleep out there," said Daddy.
"That is a good bed for a rabbit."



Penny Is Penny Now

"I do not like this," said Penny.
"It is not fun to be a rabbit now.
How can I get into the house?
How can I get my milk?
How can I get to sleep in my bed?

"I know!
I will be Penny.
Mother will let Penny come in."

"Who is this?" asked Mother.

"This is Penny," said Penny.
"I am not a rabbit now.
I will help Jack and Janet.
I will help you and Daddy."

"Where is the rabbit?" asked Daddy.

"That rabbit has gone," said Penny.

"Good!" said Daddy. "Come in!"

Put m with eat and you have meat.

Do you eat meat?

Put s with eat and you have seat.

Who has a seat?

Put b with eat and you have beat.

Who will beat Jack home?

Put n with eat and you have neat.

Is the boy neat?

Take the b out of ball and you have all.

b all

Put c with all and you have call.

c all

Put f with all and you have fall.

Who will have a big fall?

Put t with all and you have tall.

How tall are you?

Put w with all and you make wall.

Where do you see a wall?

Take the c out of can.

Put in r and you have ran.

Take the r out of ran.

Put in m to get man.

What does the man have?

Does your daddy have one?

Take the m out of man.

Put in f to get fan.

Do you have a fan?

What is a fan for?

Take the f out of fan.

Put in p to get pan.

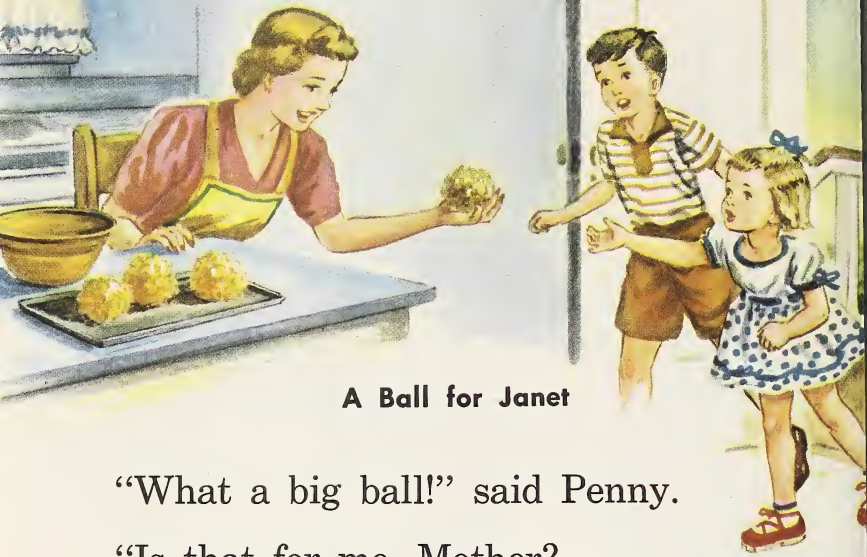
Mother has a pan.

Is it a big pan?

Who Did It?



A Ball for Janet

"What a big ball!" said Penny.
"Is that for me, Mother?
May I have it?"

"You may have it," said Mother.

"May I have a ball, too?" asked Jack.
"Did you make a ball for me?
I want a big ball, Mother."

"Here is a big ball," said Mother.
"Come and get it."

"Janet is not here," said Mother.
"Do you know where she is, Jack?"

"I know," said Penny.
"She has gone with Dot."

"She will want a ball," said Mother.
"I will put this here for her.
She will find it here."

"See what I have!" said Penny.

"It looks good," said Janet.
"Where is mine?"

"In there," said Penny.

"In where?" asked Janet.

"In the house," said Jack.
"Mother put it there for you.
Go in and you will see it."

"Jack! Penny! Look!" said Janet.
"Who did that to my ball?
I want to know.
Jack, you did it!"

"I did not!" said Jack.
"I was out there with Mother."

"I was out there, too," said Penny.
"I did not do it."

"Mitten did that," said Jack.

"How could she do it?" asked Janet.
"Mitten was in her bed.
She is there now.
Tip did it!"

"She did not!" said Jack.

"We do not know," said Mother.
"We can not find out now."

A Dish for Penny

Mother said, "Jack, where is Penny?
This dish is for her."

Jack said, "She has gone out to play.
Let me have her dish, Mother.
I will give it to her."

"No, Jack," said Mother.
"I will put her dish here.
She can come in and get it."

Jack said, "Come here, Penny!
Come and see what we have.
Come and get your dish.
Mother has a dish for you."

"Come now, Penny!" said Janet.
"Mother wants you to come in now.
Your dish is in the house.
Go into the house and get it."

"Mother! Mother! Look!" said Penny.
"Mine is gone!

"Tip, you bad dog! You did that!"

"How do you know?" asked Mother.
"How do you know Tip is bad?
Did you see her do it?"

"Tip is in here," said Penny.
"Tip could do it.
Mitten did not do it.
See? She is in her bed.
Mitten is a good little kitten."

"Tip did that," said Janet.

"How do you know?" asked Mother.
"We did not see her do it."

"My ball was gone," said Janet.
"I know Tip did that, too."

"We did not see her," said Mother.
"How can we find out who did it?"

"I know," said Jack.
"We can do it with this.
Will you help me?"

"I have put this here," said Jack.
"Now I will put a ball in the dish."

"I see," said Mother.
"Tip may come to get the ball.
This will go down with her.
Mitten may come to get the ball.
It will go down with her, too.
We will hear it."

"We will see who did it," said Janet.
"You will see that it was Tip."

"Look, Jack!" said Janet.
"Tip has gone out there.
She has gone to get that ball.
I want to see Tip do that.
I will go out there, too."

"No, Janet," said Jack.
"We do not have to go out there.
We will hear the dish come down."

"I do not hear Tip," said Jack.
"Do you hear her, Janet?"

"No, I do not," said Janet.
"I will see where she is.
I will not let her see me."

"Mitten! Mitten!" said Janet.

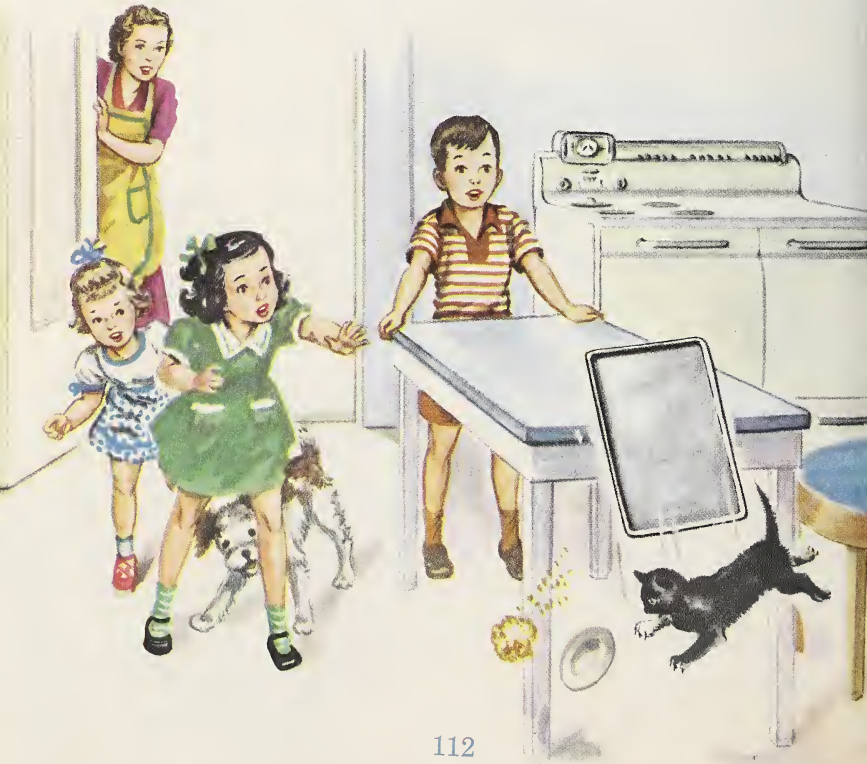
"Look out! Look out!"

"Down comes Mitten!" said Penny.

"There!" said Jack.

"Now we know who did it.

Now we know that it was not Tip."



Fun

Tip and Her Tricks

Tricks for Dick

"I have a good dog," said Jack.
"She can do tricks."

"What tricks can she do?"
asked Dick.

"Do you want to see?" asked Jack.
"Do you want me to show you the tricks that she knows?
Tip and I will show you the tricks she can do."

"Come here, Tip," said Jack.
"We will show Dick a good trick.
Jump, Tip! Jump! Jump!"

"That was a good trick," said Dick.
"Tip knows how to jump."

"Tip can do a funny trick," said Bill.
"Show Dick that funny one, Jack."

"Come, Tip," said Jack.

"We will show Dick a funny trick."

"That is a funny one," said Bill.

"Tip likes to jump and she likes to do this funny trick."

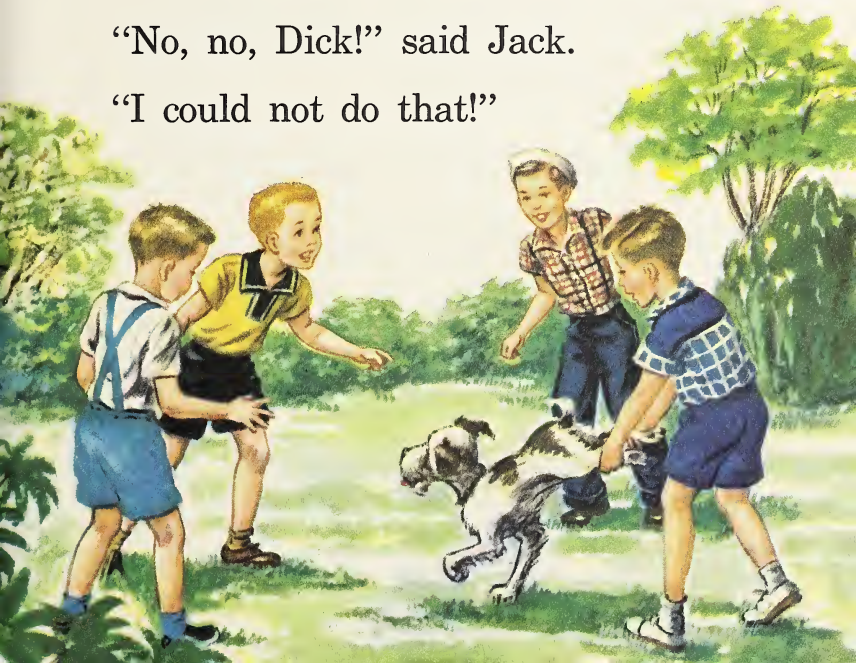
"I like that one," said Dick.

"I like Tip and her tricks.

Will you give her to me, Jack?"

"No, no, Dick!" said Jack.

"I could not do that!"



"Show us another trick," said Bill.
"Tip knows another good one.
She likes to jump for a ball."

"Jump, Tip! Jump!" said Jack.
"Jump for the ball!"

"I like that trick," said Dick.
"Jack, see what I have here.
Will you let me have Tip for this?"

"No, Dick," said Jack.
"I could not do that."

What Will Jack Take for Tip?

"Have Tip show us another trick," said a little boy.

"I like to see her go to sleep."

"Go to sleep, Tip," said Jack.
"Put your head down and sleep."

"See how she sleeps!" said the boy.

"I like that one, too," said Dick.
"Jack, I want Tip.
What will you take for her?"

"I do not know," said Jack.

Dick said, "Look at this, Jack!
This is good for a boy like you.
Will you take this for Tip?"

"Let me look at that," said Jack.
"That looks good to me.
I may let you have Tip for that.
I will have to ask Daddy."

"Go ask your daddy now," said Dick.
"Take this with you.
Your daddy will like it, too."

"Look at this, Daddy!" said Jack.
"Dick will give me this for Tip.
May I take it?"

"Who is Dick?" asked Daddy.

"He is a boy I know," said Jack.
"Bill and I play with him."

"Ask Janet," said Daddy.
"Tip is her dog, too."

"Will you get another dog for us?"
asked Jack.

"No, I like Tip," said Daddy.

Will Janet Let Tip Go?

Jack said, "Look at this, Janet!
Dick will give us this for Tip.
Will we let him take her?"

"That is not for a girl," said Janet.
"A girl could not play with it.

"Did you ask Daddy what to do?
We want to have a dog.
Will he get another one for us?"

"No," said Jack. "He likes Tip."

"I like Tip, too," said Janet.
"Dick can get another dog."

"Did you ask your daddy?"
said Dick.

"Yes, I asked him," said Jack.
"He said to ask Janet.
Tip is her dog, too."

"Did you show Janet what I will give you?" asked Dick.

"Yes, I did," said Jack.
"She did not like it.
She said it was not for a girl."

"I will see Janet," said Dick.

"Janet, I want Tip," said Dick.
"I like the tricks she can do.
Will you take this for Tip?"

"Let me look at that," said Janet.
"A girl could play with that.
May I take it home with me?"

"Yes," said Dick.
"Take it home and show it to your daddy.
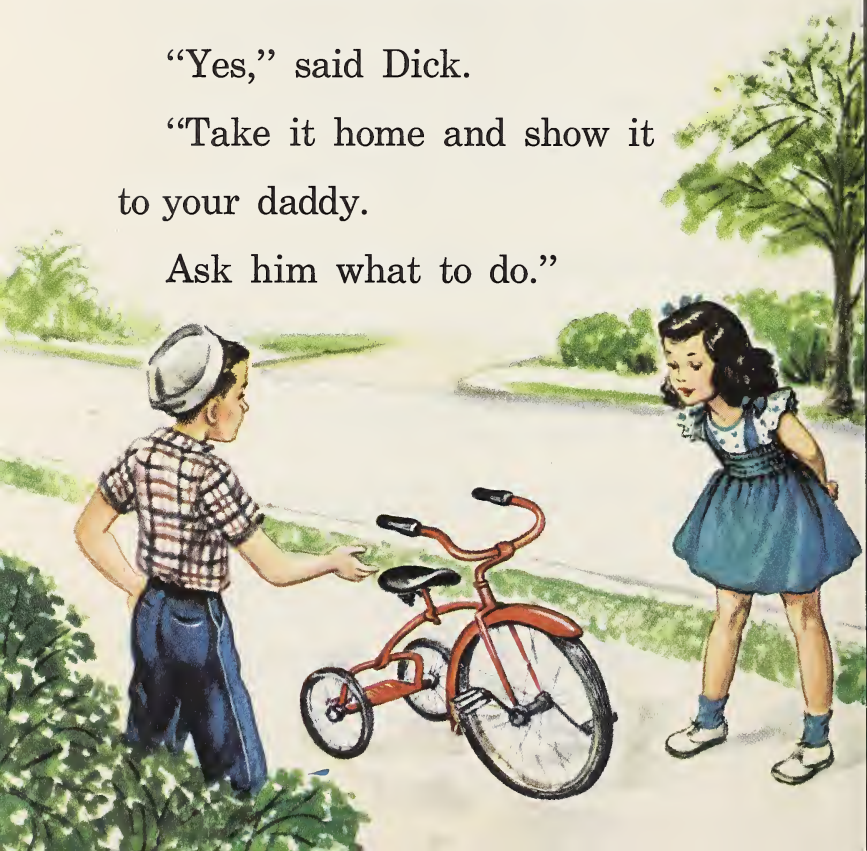
Ask him what to do."



"Daddy, look at these," said Janet.
"Dick will give us these for Tip.
That one is for a boy.
This one is for a girl."

"Daddy, we want these," said Jack.
"Let Dick take Tip."

"May we let him have her?"
asked Janet.

"Yes, you may do what you like,"
said Daddy.
"Do not ask for another dog."

"Do you like these?" asked Jack.

"Yes, I do," said Janet.
"I like Tip, too.
Will Dick be good to her, Jack?"

"Yes," said Jack. "He likes Tip."

"We will not have a dog," said Janet.
"Daddy will not get us another one.
What will you do, Jack?
Will you let Dick take Tip?"

"I do not know," said Jack.

"Jack, Tip is in here," said Janet.

"Make her go away," said Jack.
"I want to go to sleep."

"Go away, Tip," said Janet.
"Go down to your bed.

"She will not go away, Jack.
Go with her and see what she wants."

"Will you come, too?" asked Jack.

"Yes, I will," said Janet.

"Look, Janet!" said Jack.

"Look at that water come down!"

"Yes, I see it," said Janet.

"What can we do about it?"

"I can take these beds away," said Jack.

"I will take this one," said Janet.

"No, Janet," said Jack.

"I can get these away.

You call Daddy."

"The beds are away now," said Jack.
"Janet, did you call Daddy?"

"Yes, I did," said Janet.
"Here he comes now."

"Daddy! Look at that!" said Jack.
"See how that water comes down!
What can you do about the water?"

"I know what to do," said Daddy.
"I will see about it now."

"Jack, how did you and Janet know about the water?" Daddy asked.

"Tip was in bed down here," said Jack.

"The water came down into her bed.
She did not like that.
She came to call us,
and we could not make her go away.
We came down here with her."

"Tip came to call you?" asked Daddy.
"That was a good trick."

"Yes, it was," said Jack.

"What about Tip now?" asked Mother.
"See what she did for us?
Will you let Dick take her away?"

"Not now," said Jack.
"He will have to get another dog."

"He will not find one like Tip,"
said Janet.

Something for Jack

What Will Jack Want?

"I want another penny," said Janet.

"There it comes!

Now I can get something for Jack.

This is his birthday.

"Will Penny want to get something for him, too?

I will call her and ask her about it.

Penny! Penny! Come here!"

"See what came out?" said Penny.

"Here is another one.

"Now I can get something for Jack.

What does he want for his birthday?

Call him and ask what he wants."

"No! We will not let him know about this," said Janet.

Will These Do?

"See these little rabbits," said Penny.

"Does Jack like rabbits?

Will he like one of these rabbits
for his birthday?"

"No, Penny!" said Janet.

"Put the rabbits back.

Jack does not want a rabbit
for his birthday."

"Does Jack want one of these?"
asked Penny.

"No! Put those back," said Janet.
"Those are good for girls, but not for boys.

"We came to get something for Jack.
He does not play with those."

Jack Will Like These

"I will get one of those red kites for Jack," said Janet.

"That is something he will like."

"Jack has a kite," said Penny.

"He does not want another one.

He will make you take it back."

"But those are box kites," said Janet.

"Jack does not have a box kite.

He will like one for his birthday."

"I will get one of these red balls for his birthday," said Penny.

"Jack has a ball," said Janet.
"Put that back, Penny.
Do not get him one of those."

Penny said, "But Jack does not have a new red ball.
I will take one of these for Jack."

"I know Jack wants a new kite," said Janet.
"But I do not know about a ball."

"I want this new box kite," said Janet.

"I want one of those red balls," said Penny.

"These are for Jack," said Janet.
"They are for his birthday.
Will you put the kite in a box?"

"Will you put the red ball in a box, too?" asked Penny.

"Yes, I will," said the girl.

"We will go back now," said Janet.

"You get the new red ball, and I will take the new box kite."

"Does Mother have something for Jack?" asked Penny.

"Does Daddy have something, too?"

"Yes, they have," said Janet.

"All of us have something for him.
All of us have something new for his birthday."

Are All These for Jack?

"A box for you with something new," Penny said to Jack.

"This is new, too," said Janet.

"And this," said Daddy.

"This, too," said Mother.
"They are all new and all for you.
They are all for your birthday."

"Thank you! Thank you!" said Jack.
"I can see what is in one of those.
But that is all I can see now."

"Look at these mittens," said Jack.
"Mother gave me these new mittens.

"Thank you, Mother, thank you.
You gave me what I want.

"Thank you for the tricks, Daddy.
I like to do tricks.
I will do all of those tricks.

"What is this, Janet?
I know it can not be a ball.
That is good.
I do not want another ball."

"A new red box kite!" said Jack.
"Thank you, Janet.
You gave me something I want.
How did you know what to get?
I like a box kite.

"I could go out and fly it now, but it does not have a string.
I have to have a string to fly this kite."

"Penny, where is the box that you gave me?" asked Jack.

"You do not want it," said Penny.
"I gave you a red ball.
All you want now is a string for your new kite.
I will go back and get one."

"No, Penny," said Jack.
"I do not want to fly my kite now.
Let me see what you gave me."

"Penny, look at this!" said Jack.
"Look at all this string!
You said you gave me a red ball."

"That is funny," said Penny.
"I did not ask for a ball of string.
I did not ask for string at all.
Did I, Janet?"

"No, you did not," said Janet.
"But the girl gave you the string."

"Good for her!" said Jack.
"Now I can fly my new kite."

Away Went the Kite

Can Jack Fly the Kite?

"Come and see me fly my new kite," said Jack.

"You do not know how to fly it," said Janet.

"I do know how to fly a kite," Jack said.

"I will take the string and run with it.

That will make the kite go up.

Come out and see me fly it."

Jack went out to fly his new kite.

Janet and Dot went out to see Jack fly the big red kite.

"May we help you, Jack?" asked Dot.
"We can hold the kite.
You can take hold of the string and run with it.
The kite will go up high."

"Kites are for boys," said Jack.
"Kites are not for girls."

He went away with his kite.

"I can fly this kite," said Jack.

"I will put it up here.

I will take hold of the string and run as fast as I can.

The kite will go up high.

I do not want girls to help me."

Away Jack went as fast as he could run.

But the red kite did not go up.

It came down.

Help for Jack

Then Janet and Dot went up to Jack.

"Let me help you," said Janet.
"You hold the kite up high.
I will run fast with the string.
We can make the kite go up high."

"You can not run as fast as I can," said Jack.
"I will call Bill to help me.
You two girls run away and play."

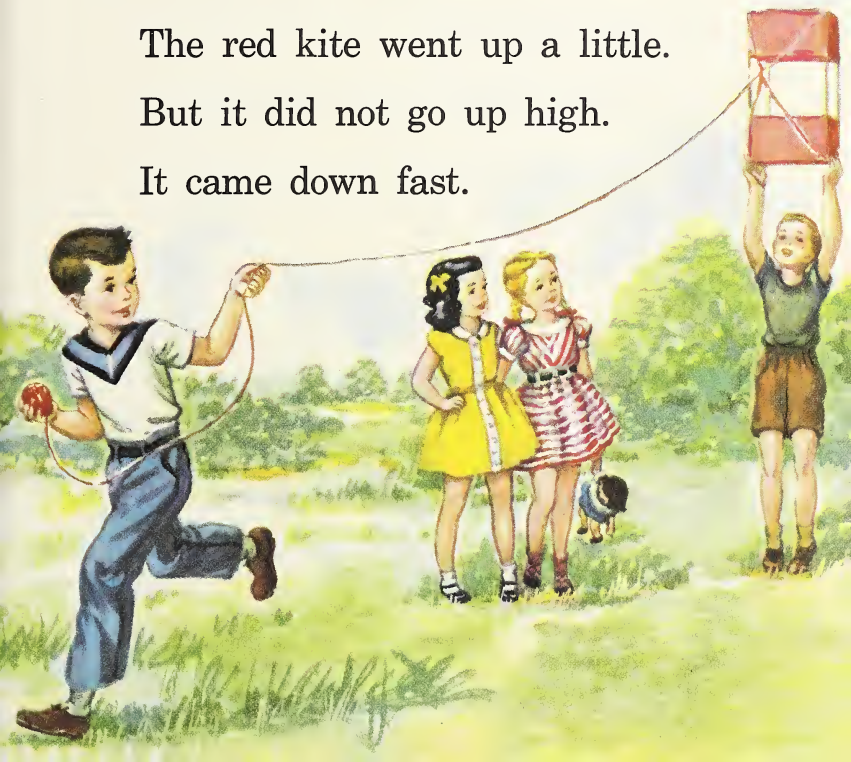
But the two girls did not go away.

"Two of us can get this kite up,"
Jack said to Bill.

"You hold the kite up.
Hold it up as high as you can.
I will run as fast as I can."

Then away Jack went.
He went as fast as he could run.

The red kite went up a little.
But it did not go up high.
It came down fast.



Janet said, "Let me help you.
I can help you fly that kite.
I can hold it up high.
I can run fast, too.
I can run as fast as you can."

Jack said, "This kite is for boys.
We can call Dick to help us.
You two girls run away and play."

Then Dot said, "Come on, Janet.
Let them fly the kite.
We do not have to play with them."

"See how high it is!" said Jack.

"Hold that string," said Dick.

"Yes, hold on to it," said Bill.

"I will," Jack said to them.
"I will not let my kite get away.
But I will let it go up as high as it can."

"Look out, Jack!" said Dick.
"Hold on! Hold on!"

Then away went the kite!

The Kite Gets Away

"Your kite is gone!" said Dick.
"I said to hold on to the string."

"I did hold on to it," said Jack.
"Here it is. See?"

"Come on!" said Dick.
"We will go after your kite."

Then Dick and Bill and Jack went to look for the kite.

"See those two boys?" said Dick.
"Ask them where your kite went."

Then Jack went up to the two boys.

He said to them, "I let my box kite get away.

Did you see it?

Did it come this way?"

"Yes, I saw it," said one of them.

"I saw it go that way.

Then I saw it go down.

Go that way and you will find it."

Dick and Jack and Bill went on after the kite.

What Did the Girls See?

Janet said, "Come on, Dot!
We will go after Daddy.
He will come home soon.
This is the way he comes.
We can come back with him."

Then the two girls saw something.

"What is that?" asked Dot.

Soon Janet saw what it was.

She said, "This is the red kite
Jack got for his birthday.
Where are the boys?
How did it get away from them?"

"The string is gone," said Dot.

"We will take the kite," said Janet.
"The boys will come after it,
but it will be gone.
Come on, Dot! We will fly it now."

"You can not fly a kite after the string is gone," said Dot.

"Daddy will help us," said Janet.
"He will come home this way.
We will ask him to get a string.
He will find a way to help us."

"The kite got away from the boys," said Dot.
"We will not let it get away."

Soon Janet saw her daddy.
"Here comes Daddy now," she said.

"What is this?" asked Daddy.
"Where did the kite come from?"

"From home," said Janet.
"It got away from the boys.
They did not let us play with them.
They said girls can not fly kites."

"We will show them," said Daddy.

"But we have no string," said Dot.

"I will get a string," said Daddy.

Soon the kite had a new string.

Where Is That Kite?

The boys looked and looked for the kite.

They had to find that red kite.

"Where can it be?" said Jack.

"It came this way
after it got away from us.

That boy saw it come down here."

"Yes, he did," said Dick.

"We will soon find the kite."

Dick and Jack and Bill looked and looked for the kite.

The boys had looked and looked,
but they could not find the kite.

"Your red kite is gone," said Bill.

"Yes, it is gone," said Jack.
"I let it go too high,
and it got away from me."

Dick looked up and saw something.
"Look!" he said. "What is that?"

"My kite! My new kite!" said Jack.

Then away went the boys as fast as they could run.

"Where did you two girls find my kite?" asked Jack.
"We looked and looked for it.
Let us boys have it now."

"You had it, but it got away from you," said Janet.
"Boys can not fly this kite.
It is a good kite for girls.
This is the way to fly it.
You boys run away and play."

Put b with at and you get bat.

What do you do with a bat?

Put c with at and you have cat.

Where can you find a cat?

Put f with at and you have fat.

What looks fat?

Put h with at and you make hat.

Where do you put a hat?

Take the J out of Jack.

Put in p and you have pack.

Take the p out of pack.

Put in b and you have back.

Jack has something on his back.

What is on his back?

Take the b out of back.

Put in s and you have sack.

Penny has a sack.

What is in the sack?

Take the s out of sack.

Put in t and you have tack.

Mother has a tack.

What can you do with a tack?

Two Kittens for One

Kittens to Give Away

"Look at all these kittens," said Bill to Jack.

"Mother said I may not have them.
I have to give them away.
But who wants them?"

"Do not give them away, Bill," said Jack.

"You can get something for those kittens.
Let me show you what to do."

"Put the box of kittens there," said Jack.

"I will put this up here.

Now boys and girls will come to get kittens from you.

They will give you something for those kittens."

"That will be good," said Bill.

"Thank you, Jack."

Who Wants a Kitten?

"Kittens! Kittens!" said Bill.

"Who wants a kitten?"

"I do," said a little girl.

She looked at all the kittens in the box.

Then she said, "I will take this kitten.

I will give you this for it."

"Thank you," said Bill.

Up came a little boy.
"I want a kitten," he said.

"Look at this one," said Bill.
"How do you like it?"

"I like it," said the boy.
"May I have it for these?
They are all I have."

"Then I will take them," said Bill.
He gave the kitten to the boy.

Up came a little girl.
She had one penny.

"I want a kitten," she said.
"But it has to be a red kitten."

"A red kitten!" said Bill.
"I have no red kitten.
There are no red kittens!"

"Then you can not have my penny," said the little girl.

And away she went with her penny.

Dick Helps Bill

"Bill, did you call me?" asked Dick.

"Yes, I did," said Bill.
"I have to help Mother.
Will you look after these kittens?"

"Yes, I will," said Dick.

"Thank you," said Bill.
"Do not let them jump out of the box."

Then Bill went to help his mother.

As soon as Bill had gone,
Mitten got up on the box.
Dick did not see her.

Mitten looked into the box and saw the little kittens.
They had gone to sleep.
She saw what a good bed they had.

Mitten got into the box.
Soon she went to sleep, too.

Dick did not know she was there.

A big boy came up to the box.
He looked at all the kittens.

"Look at this big kitten," he said.
"A big one is what I want.
This one has a mitten. See?
I will take this kitten."

Dick did not know that Janet had a kitten.
He did not know that the kitten was hers.

He let the big boy take Mitten.

Soon Bill came back.

"Thank you, Dick," he said.

"I can look after the kittens now."

"The big one is gone," said Dick.

"A big boy came and got her.

See what he gave me for her."

"What big one?" asked Bill.

"I had no big kitten."

"There was a big one in the box," said Dick.

"The boy went away with it."

Who Saw Mitten?

Soon Janet came up to the boys.
"I can not find Mitten," she said.
"Did you boys see her?"

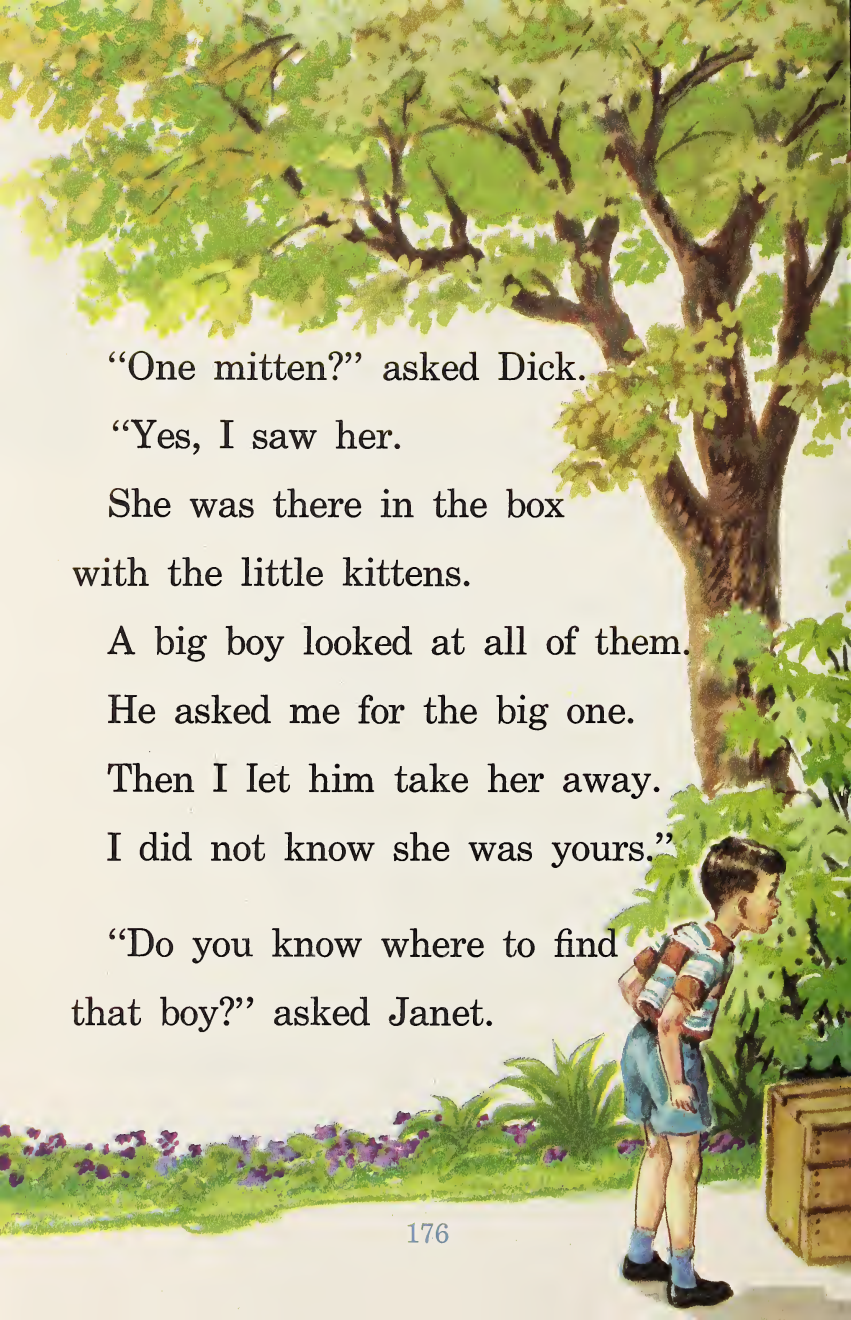
"I did not," said Bill.

"I did not," said Jack.

"Did you, Dick?" asked Janet.

"I do not know," he said.
"What does she look like?"

"She is a big kitten," said Janet,
"And she has one mitten."



"One mitten?" asked Dick.

"Yes, I saw her.

She was there in the box with the little kittens.

A big boy looked at all of them.

He asked me for the big one.

Then I let him take her away.

I did not know she was yours."

"Do you know where to find that boy?" asked Janet.

"Yes, I can find him," said Dick.

"But where can we get another kitten for him?

He wants a big kitten.

Bill does not have a big one."

"We could let the boy have two little kittens," said Bill.

"Two little kittens are as good as one big one."

"Yes," said Janet. "Come on!

Look after those kittens, Jack."

Will Janet Get Mitten Back?

"Do you have a big kitten here?" asked Dick.

"A big kitten with one mitten?"

"She is my kitten," said Janet.
"A big boy got her from Dick."

"We have a new kitten," said the little girl.
"Does she have a mitten, Mother?"

"I do not know," said her mother.
"Go find her and we will see."

Then in came the big boy who got Mitten from Dick.

"Here you are!" said Dick.
"We want to ask about that kitten."

"What about it?" asked the boy.

"She is my kitten," said Janet.
"Dick did not know she is mine.
Will you give her back to me?
You may have two little kittens for the big one."

"I do not know," said the boy.

"I like that big kitten.

She is a good one for us."

"Let the girl have her kitten," said his mother.

"She will give you two little ones for the big one."

"I will have to see those kittens," said the boy.

"They may be too little."

"The new kitten is gone," said the little girl.

"I looked and looked,
but I could not find her.
She has run away from us."

"She may have gone back home," said the boy.

"We will go and see," said Janet.
"Then we will take you to see the two little kittens."

Where Is Mitten Now?

"Jack, is Mitten here?" asked Janet.

"I do not know," said Jack.

"What are you here for?" asked Bill.

"I came for my ball," said Jack.

"What a way to look after kittens!" said Bill.

"The little kittens may be gone, too. Come on! We will find out."

They all went with Bill to his house.

"Are the two kittens there, Bill?"
asked Janet.

"Yes, they are," said Bill.
"And here is Mitten, too!"

They all came up and looked into the box.

Then Janet asked the boy.
"Will you take those two kittens?
Will you give Mitten back to me?"

"Yes, I will," said the big boy, and away he went with his kittens.

Put p with in and you get pin.

What does Mother do with pins?

Put t with in and you have tin.

What comes in tin cans?

Put th with in and you have thin.

What looks thin?

Put w with in and you will win.

Do you like to win?

Put b with and
and you make band.

Where could you see a band?
Can you hear a band?
Do you want to play in a band?

Put h with and
and you have hand.

You have two hands.
Hold out your hands.
How do your hands look now?

Put s with and
and you have sand.

Do you like to play in sand?
Where do you find sand?
What can you do with sand?

Take the m out of make.
Put in t to get take.

Take the m out of make.
Put in b to get bake.

What does your mother bake?
How does she bake it?

Take the m out of make.
Put in c to make cake.

Jack had a birthday cake.
What did he do with his cake?

Take the m out of make.
Put in r and make rake.

What do you do with a rake?
Show how you rake.

Take the h away from hold.

Now what you see is old.

How old are you?

Are you as old as Penny?

How old will you be soon?

Take the h away from hold.

Put in c and you have cold.

What is cold and good?

What makes it cold?

Does it make you cold?

Take the h away from hold.

Put in s and you have sold.

Who sold the big kitten?

Where was it sold?

Was Mitten sold to Jack?

Take the g away from got.

Put in n and you have not.

Put in d and you have dot.

Take the g out of got.

Put in h and make it hot.

What will make you hot?

Will play make you hot, too?

Take the n out of not.

Put in c and make it cot.

What does a cot look like?

Is a cot a bed for a dog?

Take the n out of not.

Put in p and you have pot.

A pot is like a big dish.

This pot is hot.

Take the m out of may.
Put in pl: you have play.
Put in w: here is way.

Take w away from way.
Put in d and you have day.

What day is your birthday?

Take d away from day.
Put in g to make it gay.

Is one of these girls gay?

Take g away from gay.
Put in h and there is hay.

What is hay good for?

Take h out of hay.
Put in s and you have say.

Did Dot say something funny?

Vocabulary

Primer List

Every one of the twenty words used in the first pre-primer, TIP, is repeated at least 20 times in this primer, JACK AND JANET. Each word taught in the second pre-primer, TIP AND MITTEN, and in the third pre-primer, THE BIG SHOW, is reintroduced in the primer and is listed separately at the end of the primer list. This primer contains 151 different words exclusive of the words that are used especially for phonetic practice on pages 96–98, 163–164, and 184–189.

4. ——
5. ——
6. ——
7. ——
8. ——
9. ——
10. ——
11. ——
12. ——
13. ——
14. ——
15. ——
16. ——
17. ——
18. ——
19. who
20. let
21. look
22. head
23. funny
24. ——
25. now
26. ——
27. what
28. gone
29. ——
30. ——
31. ——
32. ——
33. did
34. ——
35. ——
36. ——
37. ——
38. us
39. water
40. there
41. ——
42. how
43. put
44. ——
45. ——
46. one
47. said
48. of
49. ——
50. take
51. ——
52. something
53. yes
54. Dot
55. she
56. mine
57. ——
58. make
59. bad
60. ——
61. asked
62. ——
63. ——
64. ——
65. ——
66. ——
67. goat
68. he
69. him
70. eat
71. ——
72. help

73. could
74. red
75. ——
76. boy
77. ——
78. ——
79. rabbit
80. am
81. fun
82. hop
83. hear was
84. want
85. house
86. into
87. know
88. out
89. like
90. does
91. ——
92. ——
93. ——
94. ——
95. ——
96. ——
97. ——
98. ——
99. ——
100. ——
101. ——
102. ——
103. ——
104. ——
105. ——
106. ——
107. ——
108. ——
109. ——
110. ——
111. ——
112. ——
113. ——
114. trick
115. Dick
116. jump
Bill
117. ——
118. another
119. ——
120. ask at 121. ——
122. girl
123. ——
124. ——
125. these
126. ——
127. away
128. about
129. ——
130. came
131. ——
132. ——
133. birthday his 134. ——
135. back
136. but those 137. kite
138. new
139. they
140. all
141. thank
142. gave
143. fly string
144. ——
145. ——
146. went
147. run up
148. high hold 149. as fast 150. then two
151. ——
152. on them 153. ——
154. after
155. saw way
156. soon
157. from got 158. ——
159. had
160. looked
161. ——
162. ——
163. ——
164. ——
165. ——
166. ——
167. ——

168. ——
169. ——
170. ——
171. ——
172. ——
173. ——
174. ——
175. ——
176. ——
177. ——
178. ——
179. ——
180. ——
181. ——
182. ——
183. ——
184. ——
185. ——
186. ——
187. ——
188. ——
189. ——

Second and Third Pre-primer List

Listed below are the pages on which words taught in TIP AND MITTEN (indicated by ) and in THE BIG SHOW (indicated by ) are reintroduced in JACK AND JANET. These words are retaught in JACK AND JANET as new words.

4. milk
5. for
6. get
7. this
8. may
9. can
10. mother
11. have
12. a it
13. your
14. mitten
15. her
16. where
17. we
18. Penny
20. see
22. do
24. are
26. be
29. has
30. in
33. too
34. show
35. to
36. that
37. bed
39. box
41. big good
43. daddy
49. my
51. dog give 56. down
57. little
60. kitten
74. call
80. dish
89. sleep

DATE DUE SLIP
Date Due

NOV - 9 RETURN

EDUC DE 5 '79

NOV 2 9 RETURN

DUE EDUC JAN 2 9 '80

JAN 1 6 RETURN

FEB 4 80

RETURN FEB 4 '80

APR 1 2 RETURN

EDUC JAN 2 0 '81

JAN 1 6 RETURN

FEB 6 RETURN

F255

PE 1117 R282 V-5 PRIM-
READING FOR MEANING /REV ED

39655016 CURR HIST

000013286570

PE 1117 R282 v.5 prim.
Reading for meaning

39655016 CURR

Primer

EDUCATION LIBRARY

RfM

Revised Edition